

Ministry of Labour

Department of Co-operative

Committee Members: review all relevant materials before Committee meetings.

- Attend meetings and voice objective opinion on issues;
 - Pay attention to activities that affect or are affected by the Committee's work
1. Membership- elects the Committee and make changes to the rules
 2. Committee- Sets policy, selects, and supervises management
 3. Management- carries out policies, hires and supervises employees
 4. Employees- carry out tasks needed to operate the Cooperative.

Objectives of Logging Societies

- Promoting Sustainable and optimal utilization of resources:
- Coordinating and facilitating the consultative and participatory process regarding acquisition of lands for members to carry out logging operation and harvesting of timber resources:
- Promoting the establishment and maintenance mechanism for meaningful dialogue with the Guyana Forestry Commission.
- Promoting awareness on environmental standards and practice;
- Promoting downstream level production through access to training market and technical information;
- Providing fair and equitable opportunities for members to access forest resources;
- Assisting in infrastructural development pertaining forestry and Agricultural activities.