

Ministry of Labour

Department of Co-operatives

Register of Members

Any register or list of members kept by any registered society shall be prima facie evidence of any of the following particulars entered therein:

The date at which the name of any person was entered in such register or listed as a member;

The date at which any person ceased to be a member.

Qualification for Membership

In order to be qualified for membership of a cooperative Society a person, other than a registered Society, must, at the time of application-

Have obtained the age of sixteen years; and

Be resident within or in occupation of land within the Society's area of operations as described by the rules:

Provide that a pupil attending any school, may with the consent in writing of the Chief Education Officer, be registered as a member of a Society.

Proof of Entries in Books of Society

A Copy of any entry in a book of a registered society regularly kept in the course of business shall, if certified in such manner as may be prescribed by the regulations, be received in any legal proceeding, civil or criminal. As prima facie evidence of the existence of such entry, and shall be admitted as evidence of matters transactions and accounts therein recorded in every case where, and to the same extent as, the original entry itself is admissible.

Co-operative Credit Union

Making More Possible

To get rid of the pressure of money lenders;

To provide the financial facilities for short term to its members;

To keep the minimum rate of interest on loan;

To develop the habit of thrift and saving among the members;

To encourage the habit of

Services Offered:

Loans- Car and Mortgage

Savings- Regular and Special